ABSTRACT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

I. You need to register before submitting the abstract (see instructions for REGISTRATION on the INSCRIPTIONS tab of the official website).

II. Once your registration is completed, enter  www.gfra2021.com/call-for-abstracts and log in to your system's profile with your USER (e-mail) and PASSWORD, and select the MY ABSTRACTS tab.

III. Click on "ABSTRACT SUBMISSION".

IV. In the next window, you will be required to complete a series of fields to upload the abstract. The abstract must be written in English.

Complete the following fields:

➢ Type the title of the abstract in Capital letters, except in essential cases (e.g. names of microorganisms). The title must not exceed 200 characters including spaces.

➢ Choose the thematic area of the presentation (epidemiology / diagnosis / virology / pathogenesis and immunology / vaccines and therapeutic interventions)

➢ Type the authors' names (last name, first name and middle initial) and select the presenting author with a check mark in the system

➢ Type the corresponding affiliations (name of the institution, city and country)

➢ Type the main body of the abstract. It should not exceed 2,000 characters including spaces. The text must include the objectives of the study, materials and methods, a description of the most relevant results with their statistical treatment (graphs, photos or tables are not accepted) and a final conclusion.

➢ Include up to five keywords, separated by commas.

➢ Click on "SEND", the system will show you a detail of the uploaded abstract.

IMPORTANT:

● Any abstract that does not meet the requested requirements will be rejected.

● Abstracts will be evaluated by the Scientific Committee and may be accepted for oral presentation (AO), accepted for poster (AP), with corrections (C), or rejected (R).

● For organizational reasons, each registered participant will be allowed to submit up to two (2) of abstracts as first author.
